

Health Alliance Full Meeting Notes- 09/15/16

1. Welcome & introductions

2. Presentation

- a. Introduction: Kari Tarman, Oaklawn marketing [kari.tarman@oaklawn.org]
- October 2-8, 2016: Mental illness awareness week
    - Oaklawn.org/MIAW for event information, registration, & tickets
    - 10/4 Fundraising luncheon, former Olympic gold medalist, Amanda Beard
    - 10/6 Mental Health Matters: Community conversation, First United Methodist Church, Mishawaka
- b. Lisa Dixon, Team Leader, STAND program, Oaklawn [lisa.dixon@oaklawn.org]
- S.T.A.N.D. (Students taking a new direction)
    - Mental health and substance abuse prevention with youth in local schools
    - Youth Mental Health First Aid
  - See attached presentation & handouts
  - For additional information: contact Lisa Dixon or Emily Robinson Johnson, Manager of Community Partnerships, Oaklawn [Emily.robinson@oaklawn.org]

3. Member updates

- a. Sandy Sampson, KROC Institute
- Fit Kids 360 has been postponed until January
- b. Natalie Tavernier, YMCA
- Swimsuit drive: donate new or used swimsuits, goggles, and swim equipment
  - The Edison Lakes Location is open; passes are available to tour the facility
  - Offering diabetes prevention classes (small fee); bilingual coaches are available
- c. Angie Skwarcan, Early Learning Indiana
- Indiana is 1 of 9 states without state-funded preschool
  - More information to come about contacting legislators
- d. Andrea, St. Joseph Health Systems
- Free diabetes prevention program, including in Spanish, is available
  - Next class in January
- e. Jim Baxter, Covering Kids and Families
- Outreach to 20,000 people without health insurance (open ACA enrollment 11/1/16)
- f. Sondra Gardetto, St. Joseph Health Systems insurance services
- October education sessions are available in preparation for 11/1/16 open ACA enrollment [will give posters to Robin to pass out]
- g. Kristyn Quimby, Community Health, College of Health Sciences
- Project Hope (formerly known as Access to Care Day, a dental care event) has been rebranded and will include more wellness activities in addition to dental care
  - Also offering health outreach prevention education starting in the spring/late March
  - [SJCHIA will follow up with Kristyn and help her connect with HIA contacts]

g. Sue Taylor, Early Childhood Services, Memorial + EnFocus partnership

- Project focusing on pregnant women with diabetes (including WIC nutrition classes)
  - Health Points Mobile App for women who have gestational diabetes
- DASH program
  - Focus on WIC-eligible Dads with younger children; breastfeeding
  - Interested Dads can call Danny Marshall 574-647-7139
- PCORI research grant with EnFocus
  - Grant will aid sickle cell pediatrics transition into adult care

i. Becky Zakowski, Memorial HealthWorks

- Memorial Health Works Kids Museum is hiring
- Check the Beacon Health Systems website for more information

j. Patty Willaert, Memorial Hospital

- A 6-county pediatric needs assessment, including dental needs, was recently completed; results will be shared in October

k. Gail Mancini, IU School of Medicine

- 11/10, 7:00pm, at IUSB: lecture by two IU SOM faculty on mosquitoes and Zika

l. Colleen Haan, Junior Achievement

[Colleen.Hahn@ja.orgd]

- Looking for volunteers from the business community to teach job readiness, and entrepreneurship in local schools fall, winter, and/or spring

m. Vicki Rossi, Healthy Families, SJC

[VRossi@fccin.org]

- 10/1/16 Family Fun Fest
- Looking for referrals of at-risk moms, pre-natal to 3 months, especially via WIC, hospitals, and doctor's offices

n. Jacque Stahl, Allied Physicians

- A meeting space is available and open for community use at the University Commons medical plaza across from the mall
- Upcoming community lecture: 10/11, 6pm, spine surgeon

o. Angie Cavalieri, Harper Cancer

[Cavalieri.2@nd.edu]

- Like the Harper Cancer Facebook page
- Email her to receive the quarterly newsletter

p. Evan DeBeck, County Prosecutor's office

[edebeck@stjoepros.org]

- Looking for resources and programs to support/refer ex-offenders and reduce recidivism

q. Michelle Peters, SJRMC

- New mobile medical unit with 3D technology is available at the end of October, which is breast cancer awareness month:
  - Offering mammograms, including to people who have no insurance
  - Visit the SJRMC website for more information
- 11/5: Health fair with free flu shots, Greater St. John's Missionary Baptist Church
- Free flu shots at multiple locations; leftovers will be sent to the health department
- SHIP counselors are available for ACA open enrollment 11/1/16

Next Meeting: Thursday, November 17, 2016, 8:30-9:30 a.m., Logan Center